OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 1, 1862.

Capital --Exactly Right.

The Advertiser tells that "the democracy are spilling their blood upon the side of the Constitution; that they are spilling their blood upon the side of that constitution which Washington and his compatriots fought to form."

This is exactly right. The Union democrats everywhere, in the army and out of the army "are fighting for the constitution that Washington and his compatriots fought to form." When they succeed in battle, driving the rebels before them, sustaining the glorious flag of the Union and the constitution, we rejoice with joy unspeakable—while you denounce them "as worse than traitors."

You ask us—"Do you dare tell an intelligent public that there is a single democrat in our vast army fighting for the government administered by Lincoln?" We answer that there is no necessity of telling an intelligent public anything of the kind. Every intelligent man knows that democrats and republicans, as leaders of armies and as comprising the rank and file of our armies, are fighting for the government as administered by Lincoln, and if there be any man, anywhere who does not know this he must be more stupid, by a good deal than Balaam's ass.

Says the Advertiser, "There is not a democrat in our army who does not feel a longing anxiety that this war should cease." Exactly so; and there is not a republican in the army who does not wish this war should cease; but neither democrats or republicans want this war to cease until the government and the constitution are vindicated by the utter humiliation of the rebels. Democrats and republicans—all Union men entirely harmonize in this view of the war in which the country is now engaged.

The Advertiser still goes on—"To find republicans in the army is worse than hunting needles in a hay stack." Doubtless this simile is striking to those who can understand it—but the idea that democrats are opposed to the war, as often stated by the Advertiser.—that they regard those who fight the battles of the country "as worse than traitors,"—and such men "sympathize with the south," "pray that the arms of the government may be paralysed," and that that these same democrats are fighting battles in behalf of our Union, and government, evincing bravery and devotion scarcely equalled in any other age of the world—involves a contradiction as absurd as can be presented to an intelligent mind. Republicans and democrats—discarding party names—are standing shoulder to shoulder, baring their breasts to the balls and bayonets of a party with whom the Advertiser "sympathizes," and they will fall together on the field of battle, or they will gloriously triumph together.

The Secession Democrats of which the Advertiser is the champion, are not the Democrats who sustain the Government and the Constitution. They are the men who rejoice at a defeat of our arms—who have no hope of attaining their wishes but in the humbling of our Nation—in forcing our rulers to compromise with treason, and again to admit to more in our Government such wretches as Jeff Davis and his colleagues. It well may be said of these Secession Democrats: "Their hopes rise as their country sinks, and sink as their country rises."

PROMOTED.—Capt. James C. Strong, of the 38th New York regiment, in McClellan's Division, has been promoted to a Colonelcy for gallantry in the field. Capt. Strong was formerly a resident of Vancouver, and is a brother of Judge Strong, of Washington Territory.

POWDER RIVER MINES.—A gentleman down from Powder River, by the name of Lizot, reports the mines quite as good as those on Salmon River. He has with him a specimen of Powder River gold, free from quartz, and weighing $12. He states that at the time he left there was five hundred persons in the mines, all doing well and satisfied with their prospects. Provisions were very short, and unless supplies are thrown into the mines at an early day, there must be great suffering. There is a good road open through from the Dalles to Powder river for pack-animals, and loaded wagons can go to within a few miles of the mines. The only obstruction in the way, is one or two miry places, which could be easily filled up, and then the road would be open the whole distance for teams. Communication was open from Powder River to Salmon. Parties who had recently come over reported the snow from three to four feet deep on the mountains.—Mountaineer.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 17.—Berdan's sharpshooters are spreading terror among the guns of the enemy. They have made several sorties with infantry to discharge and capture our rifles men, but were driven back with heavy loss. Arrangements for the final siege of Yorktown are said to be going on satisfactorily. Excessive smoke has been seen rising all day from Newport News, leading to the belief that preparations are making to evacuate it.

From Norfolk papers we have the following:

RICHMOND, April 15.—Both houses of Congress have adopted a resolution to adjourn on Monday next, to meet again on the third Tuesday of August. Official information from New Orleans states an attack on Forts Jackson and St. Phillip commenced yesterday. A conscription bill passed Congress on the 8th.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 19.—Thirty-nine wounded from Yorktown arrived to-day, making 90 wounded in the fight on the left flank on Wednesday. The whole number killed was 32. The Norfolk papers contain Magruder's account of the fight. He says the rebel loss was 25 killed and 75 wounded.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Secretary Stanton denounces the rumor of misunderstanding between him and the President. It was utterly without foundation.

Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen died at his residence at Trenton, N. J., on Thursday.

NEW YORK, April 17.—A special dispatch from Washington states the the object of the French Minister's visit to Richmond is to assert the right of French merchants to large quantities of tobacco, in the hands of the rebels. Treasury notes 90.

WASHINGTON, April 17th.—Intelligence was received to-day from the Potomac that the flotilla visited the town of Urbana on the 16th. A boat's crew was sent ashore, but before landing was fired upon by a party of rebels, Gunboat Jacob Bell opened fire on the rebels and scattered them in all directions.

Later the flotilla proceeded towards Fredericksburg. Arriving opposite Lowrey's Point batteries, the whole fleet commenced shelling the enemy's works and fortifications, driving out the rebels, who had occupied it since the evacuation by the large body of rebels, twelve days since. After shelling, the boat's crew took possession.

Senate bill for establishing a line of steamships between San Francisco and Shanghae came up. No action.

WINCHESTER, Va., April 17.—Yesterday a large boat containing a number of men and officers of a Pennsylvania regiment, was swamped on the Shenandoah, drowning between forty and fifty men and several officers.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Gen. Milroy has occupied Monterey, Highland county, Va. Last Saturday the Confederates, 2,000 in number, with cavalry companies and two pieces of artillery, attacked and drove in his pickets. The General immediately reinforced his advance, when a sharp skirmish ensued, resulting in the rout of the rebels. Our loss was three wounded.

BOSTON, April 18.—Thomas J. Lansall, late U. S. Consul at Tangiers, and Myers, late Purser of the pirate Sumter, who was arrested at Algiers, Morocco, arrived here on the bark Harriet Hoxe, as prisoners of war, in irons, and were sent to Fort Warren.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—Ex-Secretary of War Cameron, was arrested here to-day on complaint of Pierce M. Butler, for his alleged illegal retention at Fort Lafayette.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Gen. McDowell's division marched yesterday upon Fredericksburg. The march was disputed by one regiment of infantry, one of cavalry, and a battery of artillery, which were driven across the Rappahannock. Our loss was five killed and sixteen wounded. The rebels burned the bridges over the river at Fredericksburg. Our troops have not yet occupied the town. They have been warned by loyal citizens not to venture too far, except in force. The large body of rebels who occupied the place until recently have gone to Yorktown.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Our forces occupy the heights of Falmouth, opposite and commanding Fredericksburg. The City Council had called a meeting after the appearance of our forces and appointed a committee to confer with the Federal Generals, relative to the occupation of Fredericksburg, and protection of private property. They adopted a resolution declaring that since the adoption of the ordinance of secession the city had been unanimously in favor of, and still was firmly attached to, the Confederacy, surrendering only upon the condition of the protection of private property. Arrangements were perfected for getting an interview of the Committee with the commanding General on Saturday. Much valuable information was obtained from loyal citizens of Fredericksburg. Most of them affirm that so soon we take possession of the city, and there is no fear of the return of rebel soldiers, a majority of the remaining citizens will be found loyal. Vast amounts of grain and other forage are stored in the vicinity of Fredericksburg. The enemy, besides destroying the bridges, burned three steamers and twenty schooners, loaded with corn.

Official dispatches say Gen. Banks' party arrived at Sparta, Rockingham county, Va., yesterday, driving the enemy from a hill in the vicinity with artillery and cavalry charges. Six thousand of Jackson's troops passed through town and encamped a short distance beyond the night before. It is currently reported that Jackson will be largely reinforced between here and Staunton.

On a road between New Market and Sparta a body of our advance cavalry came upon two regiments of Ashby's cavalry, drawn up in line of battle. The latter suddenly broke ranks and his artillery opened on us. Our cavalry, in line of battle, waited for the artillery, which arrived and scattered the rebels. On the night of the 17th, Ashby's forces reached New Market. At 7 o'clock next morning, an attack was commenced by Banks, who had occupied that town during the night. Ashby set fire to his camp and retreated in great haste, leaving 300 butchered beeves on the ground, and doing what he never did before—burning every bridge to delay pursuit.

WASHINGTON, April 21st.—General Banks telegraphs to the War Department that a skirmish took place between his advance and a rebel force at the bridge across the South Fork of the Shenandoah, the object of the rebels being to destroy important bridges across the river. They did not succeed.

SPARTA, April 20th.—Everything quiet in front of us. Deserters report that Jackson's advance was still retreating. Signal officers report that the cavalry of the enemy was within eight miles yesterday afternoon. Deserters believe that Jackson means to cross the Blue Ridge and reach Gordonsville; others, that he intends to attack our left flank.

Fort Macon is completely invested. It has been ascertained that the rebel supply of provisions is short. No attack will be made on the fort, but it is intended to starve them out. A slight expectation still prevailed that the rebels might attack Newbern. Fortifications were being built for its protection. The rebels claim that Fort Macon is provisioned for six months, and has three thousand effective men.

ST. LOUIS, 20th.—Col. Jennison, of the Kansas Jayhawkers, arrived here this morning as a prisoner from Leavenworth.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Gen. Dupont's official dispatch to the navy department, speaks of the fall of Fort Pulaski as the result of laborious scientific preparations and of consummate skill and bravery in executing them. Among the prisoners at Fort Pulaski, is Captain Shams, editor of the Savannah Republican.

Post office appropriation bill provides $1,000,000 for service on California Central route, and repeals the act requiring Postmaster General to give preference to American ships carrying foreign mails. The Postmaster General is authorized to establish a coast mail, not less than semi-monthly, between San Francisco and Crescent City, including in the service, intermediate points, provided the sum to be paid for such service, (Overland, Isthmus and Crescent City routes) does not exceed $20,000 per annum. The above bill has not been signed by the President.

Gen. Wright in abandoning Jacksonville, Florida, brought away with him 1200 inhabitants, who were afraid to be found there by the returning rebels. Several Unionists, who ventured to remain were hanged.

CAIRO, April 10—10 p. m.—A dispatch from the Mississippi fleet near Fort Wright, 9 miles above Memphis, April 11th, says the mortar bombardment was renewed this afternoon, vigorously at first and continued more slowly. They replied with round shot from the different batteries which fell close to the mortar and gunboats. The report published that the Fort had surrendered was incorrect. Deserters say the number of men there is 5,000.

CAIRO, April 17.—Com. Foote telegraphs under date of 14th, from the fleet that mortars opened fire that day and upon cleaned the river of all vessels. Shells fell into the rebel camps. Their works are very strong and extensive.

CAIRO, 19th.—A gentleman from Pittsburg Landing, reports that General Sherman moved his Division on Wednesday, two miles further into the interior. After a sharp skirmish, in which the enemy were defeated with a loss of 50 or 60 killed and many wounded, he succeeded in maintaining his position.

Information from Corinth to the 15th, says: "The rebels consider the battle of Sunday morning, 6th of April, as unexampled in brilliancy. It is producing a wonderful effect upon the people. Reinforcements are pouring in upon Beauregard at an unexampled rate. He has now a hundred thousand men in his command. He is fortifying Corinth, building entrenchments, and digging rifle pits.—The rebels entertain no doubt of success the next time, if an encounter is provoked.

Deserters from Beauregard's army came into Savannah on Wednesday. They report the arrival of Gen. Price on Saturday, with thirty thousand men.

Bushrod Johnson died Sunday night of wounds received at the battle.

There is no foundation for the report of Gen. Prentiss' escape. The greater part of the 18th, 12th, and 14th Iowa, the 50th Illinois and 23d Missouri regiments were taken prisoners with him.

ST. LOUIS, 16th.—A Cairo dispatch says a skirmish took place at Savannah on Wednesday, between a detachment of our cavalry and a strong rebel picket. The latter had 50 killed 65 wounded.

NEW YORK, April 21st.—The Herald publishes a telegram from Beauregard, at Corinth, to Adjutant General Cooper, at Richmond, said to have been intercepted by Gen. Mitchell, after taking possession of Decatur, Alabama, in which Beauregard says: All available troops should join us in a few days. Cannot we be reinforced from Pemberton's army? If defeated here we lose the Mississippi valley, and probably our cause; whereas we could even afford to lose Charlestown and Savannah, for the purpose of defeating Buell's army, which would not only insure us the valley of the Mississippi, but our independence.

ST. LOUIS, April 19th.—Gen. Curtis' army has returned to Missouri, and is encamped forty-five miles south of Springfield.

NEW YORK, April 20th.—The steamer Philadelphia, from Fort Pickens, has arrived.—Negroes were constantly arriving from Pensacola. The rebels had not evacuated the town but were moving guns away. The town was under martial law. Large fires were seen nightly, indicating that the rebels were destroying their property. The rebel commander had issued a proclamation that he would hang all idle (?) people after the 3d of April.

The steamer Troy, from Newbern has arrived. A sortie was made on the 12th, from Fort Macon by a detachment of one hundred and fifty rebels. Our pickets were driven in. After a short engagement, the rebels were driven back to the fort. Two of our men were wounded.

NEW YORK, April 21st.—The city of Apalachicola, Florida, has been successfully occupied by our troops. The capture was effected by two gunboats, on the 3d, with little opposition. A few shells dispersed the rebel force. The remaining portion of the population were found to be in a starving condition. The blockade had cut off supplies from the seaboard, and the resources from the interior were not sufficient to maintain the ordinary comforts of life.

CHICAGO, April 21st.—Gov. Harvey of Wisconsin was drowned at Savannah, on the Tennessee river, on Saturday night. He was there looking after the welfare of the wounded Wisconsin troops.

We are indebted to Messrs. Wells, Fargo & Co. for a copy of yesterday's Mountaineer. Its editor, Mr. Newell, who was present at the late so called Democratic State Convention at Corvallis, denounces the nominations of that Convention with the exception of the candidate for Congress, and alleges that he was only placed on the ticket as a make weight for the balance of the nominees. He also says, the Convention contained among its members, a large element of Secessionists who were stealthy kept in the back ground, but made itself manifest at the vote for Governor.

By Last Night's Mail.

The Very Latest!

The stage, which arrived at a late hour last night, brought the following later news, as telegraphed to the Sacramento Union:

The Savannah News says a skirmish took place at White Marsh Island, between the Georgia Thirteenth and a Michigan Regiment. The latter was repulsed, with the loss of twenty; Confederate loss, five killed and seven wounded.

The rebel Senate passed a bill raising the postage of single letters to ten cents. A House bill prohibits the sale of cotton, sugar, and tobacco, to the enemy.

Richmond papers say McClellan is waiting for iron clad gunboats to take Richmond by the way of James River. They call for obstructions to be at once sunken as the only means of prevention.

According to a letter received recently from the rebel Capital, there are only four slight batteries, which can easily be taken by gunboats on the river.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—Since Fredericksburg was taken by the Federals, Virginia bank notes are selling here for fifty cents on the dollar. Specie in Virginia is now at 80 per cent premium.

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—The riot at East St. Louis on Saturday night was caused by an attempt on the part of the employees on the Ohio and Missouri Railroad to remove obstructions from the culvert, placed there by the inhabitants to prevent the town being overflowed. A Provost Marshal's guard sent to quiet the disturbance, was fired on by the inhabitants. No damage was done. The guard then charged bayonets on the crowd, wounding three.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The debate in the Senate to-day was on McDougal's resolution to inquire into Gen. Stone's case. It was an interesting one. A personal collision was threatened between McDougal and Chandler. A substitute offered by Wilson, was finally accepted by McDougal, calling on the President, if not incompatible with the public interest, for all information relative to the arrest and imprisonment of Gen. Stone.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The dispatch purporting to come from Beauregard and intercepted by Gen. Mitchell was probably intended for no other purpose than to deceive the Federal General. Latest advices from Tennessee river represents our army in excellent fighting condition.

A telegraph from Goldsboro, April 15th, says a skirmish took place between a detachment of the Second North Carolina Cavalry and the enemy's pickets below Pollocksville. Ten Confederates were wounded and a Lieut. Colonel taken prisoner.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The President sent a message to the Senate yesterday concerning the arrest of ex-Secretary Cameron at the instance of Pierce Butler. The President avers the arrest of Butler to be his act, done under his authority, and avers that State necessity justified it.

The Petersburg, Va., "Express" says a requisition has been made on the slave-owners of Prince George and Surry counties for one half of the negroes between sixteen and fifty years of age, to work on the fortifications of Williamsburg, where Magruder's reserves are posted. The works are designed to protect Yorktown in the rear.

CAIRO, April 22d.—The news from Fort Wright is unimportant. The building operations continues. The rebels have cut the levee on the Arkansas shore opposite the fort. A number of flats and barges are now covered with water for miles around. The residents are greatly exasperated at the outrage.

Petersburg papers contain an account of the repulse of the Federal forces under Burnside, at Elizabeth City. It is said the Federals, 5,000 strong, attempted to land there, and were repulsed with a loss of 600 killed by the Confederate force of 1000. The rebel loss is stated as 15 killed.

Advices received by the Marion states that a surveying party of two hundred of the 28th Indiana Regiment, landing at Wellington Island, below Savannah, were surprised and fired on by six or eight hundred rebels, killing and wounding several. The firing was returned; after a short stand the rebels retreated. The Federal loss was thirteen killed and thirty wounded.

Fort Pulaski was so much injured as to be unfit as a work of defense.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—At one o'clock this afternoon all was quiet at Fortress Monroe and Yorktown. The weather is pleasant, and the army is in high heart. Operations are progressing favorably.

The Select Committee to whom was referred the question of the loyalty of Senator Stark of Oregon, reported to-day that he is disloyal to the Government of the United States, having found that, for many months prior to November he was an ardent advocate of the rebel cause, and after the formation of the rebel Constitution openly declared his admiration for it and his sympathy with the rebel cause.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Price and Van Dorn on the fourteenth were at Des Arc, ninety miles below Jacksonport, on the White river. The rebels seem to be concentrating a large force at Des Arc.

Albert Pike, with two thousand Indians and 600 Texans, are left on the border to harass Curtis, while on the south Edgar Ashburny is trying to raise a regiment for guerrilla warfare.

AUGUSTA, (Ga.,) April 18.—An accident occurred on the Atlantic and West Point railroad, at Greene, Tennessee, a day or two since, by which 20 rebel soldiers were killed and 6 wounded.

The new war steamer Orita had left Liverpool for Palermo. It is believed she goes to Bermuda for her armament, and takes to the Atlantic as a privateer.

The schooner Sophia arrived at Liverpool with 900 bales of cotton, having run the blockade at Charleston.

The Sumter remains at Gibraltar.

In Parliament, Disraeli made an attack on Gladstone's financial policy. The latter spoke strongly in defense. A general debate ensued, in the course of which Bentinck attributed the distress of the country to its inhuman policy in refusing to recognize the Confederate States.

The London Times says that no weapons of offense or defense seem left us now, so effective as large armor-clad ships and swift steam rams.

—The alarm of fire yesterday after noon was occasioned by the burning of a wood shed on the premises of Mr Sutherland, on the corner of Fifth and Stark streets The fire was caused from some fluid lamps burning in a brick-box, placed in the shed But the timely arrival of the Fire Department and the applications of a few streams of water prevented a conflagration would no doubt have been the result

How to go to the Mines.—Miners who now purpose going to Salmon River Rhodes Creek and the other mining regions should not start out unprepared to travel through a cold and starved out country for it is known by all who have come from above the Cascades that the country is now bare of all kinds of provisions, by its supplies having been cut off by the late stoppage of navigation Therefore new adventurers will do well to get through comfortably and return with their pockets full of Rocks to call at HARKER BROTHERS, opposite the Upper Wharf, and supply themselves with Flour Bacon Beans Groceries Blankets Clothing Rubber and Nail Boots and all other articles necessary for miners purposes before they embark for the Land of Promise

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recurs to call at once to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off Public SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR L J CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice In the schools of France the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession Recently an illustrious example a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, at Dr Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine compliments him with a Diploma, and the honorary academic degree Such distinction as his field of operation although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and at the Surgical Hospital of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors Dr L J Czapkay has had his eminent attainments in the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has become great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States and his portrait and biography are published in the matter of interest to their readers in the most extensive journals The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street corner of Leidesdorff nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company San Francisco We ask particular attention of our readers to the unprecedented certificates of remarkable cures from the first column of this paper Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their case Address L J CZAPKAY M D San Francisco Cal june26dawly

Recipe for Potato Pudding

"Send Mudlaw here," said Mrs Philpot She would not have dared to address her "chief cook and bottle-washer" with the respectful title of Mrs, but she thought it was rather grand to omit it, and she always did so when not in her hearing

"The missus said I was to send you there," said Peggy

"You send me!" exclaimed the indignant cook "I guess when I go for mean sending it will be after this"

Mrs Philpot although conversing in a condescending manner with Mrs Darling caught something of the cook's reply to her summons, and asked to be excused for a moment saying that Peggy was so stupid she feared that Mudlaw might not understand her, and she would go herself and send her So she hastened down to the kitchen where she found the head functionary standing on her dignity

"Pretty well," said she "if I am to be ordered round by an Irish scullion

"Mrs Mudlaw step here a moment if you please" said Mrs Philpot, meekly opening the door of an adjoining room

The offended lady vouchsafed to comply with the request, and with a stern aspect entered the room with Mrs Philpot, The latter then closed the door for fear of being heard overhead and began

"What do you think Mrs Mudlow? That Mrs Darling has come to learn how to make a potato pudding, and you'll have to go up and tell her"

"I shan't do it I make it a point never to give my receipts to nobody"

"I know it, and, I'm sure I don't blame you But, in this case just now—I really don't see how we can refuse

"Well, I shan't do it and that's the hull on't

"Oh, do, Mrs Mudlaw, just this once The colonel is anxious to secure Darling and will be so angry if we offend them in any way"

"But he needn't know it"

"He certainly will find it out by some means I know it is real vexatious to you, and I wouldn't ask it, if election was over but now 'tis very important it may save us all trouble The colonel is so decided, you know"

These last words had an effect upon Mudlaw which no wish or entreaty of Mrs Philpot could have ever produced, for they suggested to her selfish mind the possibility of a dismissal from her snug berth at Colonel P's, where she carried it with a high hand, so she gave in

"Well, jest to please you and the curnel, I'll do it; but I wish 'leetion was over'

Mrs. Philpot returned to the nursery, and Mrs Mudlaw took off her apron, changed her cap for one trimmed with pink ribbons and blue roses, gave numerous orders to Peggy and followed She was a short, fat woman, with a broad red face—such a person as a stranger would call the very personification of good nature; though I have never found fat people to be any more amiable than lean ones Certainly, Mrs. Mudlaw was not a very sweet tempered woman On this occasion she felt rather more cross than usual, forced, as she was, to give one of her recipes to a nobody She, however, knew the necessity of assuming a pleasant demeanor at that time, and accordingly entered the nursery with an overspreading grin on her blazing countenance. Mrs Philpot, fearing lest her cook's familiarity might belittle her mistress in the eyes of Mrs Darling and again asking to be excused for a short time went into the library, a nondescript apartment, dignified by that name, which communicated with the nursery. The moment she left her seat, a large cat-dog-hair, Mudlaw dumped herself down in it exclaiming—

"Miss Philpot says you want to get my recipe for Injun puddin'."

"Yes," replied Mrs Darling 'I would be much obliged to you for the directions" And she took a paper and pencil from her pocket to write it

"Wal, 'tis an excellent puddin'," said Mudlaw, complacently. "For my part, I like it about as well as any puddin' I make, and that's sayin a good deal, I can tell you, for I understand makin' a puddin' nicely. 'Taint so rich as some, to be sure Now, there's the Cardinelle puddin' the Washington puddin', and the Lay Fayette puddin', and the—

"Yes. Mr Darling liked it very much—how do you make it?"

"Wal, I peel my potaters and bile 'em in fair water. I always let the water bile before I put 'em in. Some folks let their potaters lie and sog in the water ever so long, before it biles, but I think it spiles 'em. I always make it a punt to have the water bile."

"How many potatoes?"

"Wal, I always take about as many potaters as I think I want. I'm generally governed by the size of the puddin' I want to make. If it's a large puddin', why I take quite a number, but if it's a small one, why then I don't take so many — So quick as they are done, I take 'em up and mash 'em as fine as I can get em I'm always very particular about that some folks aunt, they'll let their potaters be full o' lumps I never do if there's anything I hate, it's lumps in potaters I can't bear 'em. Whether I'm mashin' potaters for puddin's or for vegetable use, I mash it till there ain't the size of a lump in it If I can't get it fine without sifting, why, I sift it Once in a while, when I'm otherways engaged, I set the girl to mashin' Wal, she'll give it three or four jams and come along, 'Miss Mudlaw, is this potater fine enough?' Jubiter Rammin' that's the time I come as near gittin' mad as I ever allow myself to come, for I make it a punt never to have lumps

"Yes, I know it is very important But what next?"

"Wal, then I put in my butter in winter time I melt it a little, not enough to make it oily, but jest so's to soften it."

"How much butter does it require?"

"Wal, I always take butter accordin to the size of the puddin'; a large puddin' needs a good sized lump o' butter, but not too much And I always partic'lar to have my butter fresh and sweet Some folks think it's no matter what sort o butter they use for cookin', but I don't Of all things, I detest spise strong, fowzy, rancid butter For pity's sake have your butter fresh"

"How much butter did you say?"

"Wal, that depends as I said before, on what sized puddin' you want to make And another thing that regulates the quantity of butter I use is the 'mount o' cream I take I always put in more or less cream when I have abundance of cream I put in considerable, and when it's scarce why I use more butter than I otherways should But you must be partic'lar not to get in too much cream — There's a great deal in havin jest the right quantity; and so 'tis with all the ingrejences There ain't a better puddin in the world than the potater puddin', when it's made right, but turn it every-body that makes 'em right I remember when I lived in Turkertown, I was a visitin to Squire Humphrey's one time—I went in the first company in Turkertown—dear me! this is a changeable world Wal, they had what they called a potater puddin for dinner Good land! Of all the puddin's! It never occurred to that puddin since, and wondered what the Squire's wife was a thinkin' of when she made it. I wasn't obleeged to do such things in them days, and didn't know how to do anything as well as I do now Necessity is the mother of invention Experience

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Economy in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction and easily kept in order; should make a right and left stitch, alike on both sides of the material and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool and to sew from coarse to fine and from thick to thin with rapidity and without changing the tension It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and always ready to work

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise

It should have a wheel feed; no others are in constant contact with the work

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret Diseases, Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Nodes, Fits, St Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory Loss of Power, Gonorrhœa, Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or how intricate the case recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment upon after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all the means of cure The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many who (I am sorry to say) in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption scrofula, and many other diseases and should be a terror to the human family A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected in the majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury which will sooner or later, hasten the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim escape the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcerous eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave

Bilfulness is another formidable enemy to health for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human ills causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wretched in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and all train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the full confidence I entertain in the many unfortunate victims of solitary vice that a perfect and lasting cure can be effected, and with the aid of the most valuable remedies, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females treated on principles fully established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures — Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business correspondence strictly confidential Address DR L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and grateful feelings, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demand for this remedy is steadily increasing, and their publicity and use commend itself to the attention of all afflicted

CAUTION—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of the suffering may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the entire recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the secret practices run into in his youth, despondency in body and mind engulfed in perfect despair, the most brilliant prospects of life in the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first promised me relief, but after a few weeks and in several instances months, of their treatment I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their features, and I being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired, never regaining my health strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope I called upon Dr Czapkay who after carefully examining my case prescribed some medicine which I must gratefully relieved me In the third part and direction in my home Encouraged by the result I resolved to place myself immediately under his care and fully adhere to all his directions and advice, my mind became clear and my ideas collected the constant pain in my back and groins the weakness of my limbs the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings the lack of trust and want of confidence in myself, the incapability to study, and want of resolution the fearful exciting and at times powerful dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have ceased and in fact in two months after I commenced the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life, but a short time ago I contemplated to end my misery by suicide, but with view to guard the unfortunate into the snares of incompetent quacks. I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. L. J. Czapkay and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected
